Re: In re Motors Liquidation Co, et al., Chpt.11 Case No. 09-50026 (REG),-

Hearing on 213 Omnibus Objection to the false Duplicate Debt Claim- Wilmington Trust with Respect to Claim No(s). 70938.

f/k/a GM corp., et al. Debtor

To The Honorable Robert E. Gerber, United States Bankruptcy Judge:

This letter is to explain my position on my claim as an individual bondholder to my bond. There should be no duplicate claim to my personal holding of GM stock which represents part of my retirement savings. I filed a legitimate claim and omnibus response for my property of the GM bond for $50,000 which matured prior to the plan. No legitimate claim or no notice of a claim was filed by GUC Trust or Wilmington Trust. The basis of this alleged claim is erroneous.

The bond matured on 01/15/2011. I have not been paid its' face value. ( please see the attachment of the confirmation letter from Citibank)

My bank informed me of the GM bankruptcy petition under Chapter 11. I filed my claim as a creditor directly with the court and not with the trust or the bank. The filing was listed on the proof of claim form produced by the court and the claim includes, principle and interest. I am not a creditor of GUC Trust, Wilmington Trust, the bank or MLC and the bond is not listed as such. Furthermore, the bond is not listed as a Eurobond. Please review t his bond separately as an individual debt holder bond. I received no recompense, so far for this particular bond. This is a fifth amendment property right and an unlawful taking. It was set to mature,01/15/2011,in full, prior to the plan. It is not a Eurobond. I did not consent to an exchange or conversion of a bond to a Eurobond. I was not given proper notice to anything of the contrary.

Therefore, Individual bondholders filed a proof of claim, they should receive a distribution\bond to the extent they have proof as holders of record prior to plan. Mr. Cecil A. Benjamin proof of claim is (ECF No. 9623). The Wilmington Trust Bond does not have a legitimate debt claim to Mr. Benjamin's personal property and retirement money in the form of a GM bond. The responding parties are holders of records and have provided documentation. The claim was made prior to the effective date of the plan. Cecil A. Benjamin has already filed a response to the Omnibus objection. Mr. Benjamin claim is not duplicative of a GUC Trust or Wilmington Trust claim. He is unaware of their interest and has not confirmed Global's proof of claim filed by the applicable indenture trustee. These parties acknowledge Mr. Benjamin's response. The claim that the Wilmington Trust Co. alleged claim is duplicative or that I receive proper notice is false. Furthermore, the claim is false and erroneous because the bond is registered in my name. (ECF No. 9623)

I did not receive notice of a GUC trust of claim or Wilmington Trust Co. claim nor did I receive new GM stock or warrants based on this particular bond, which was set to mature. I filed a claim. GUC has no legitimate claim. Therefore, the Omnibus response objection should not be granted. The individual debtor's claim occurred prior to the Debtor's confirmed plan and its enforcement. Therefore, Mr. Cecil A. Benjamin respectfully requests entry of an order granting the relief requested in Omnibus Objection with respect to the false debt claim filed by responding parties and such other further relief as is just.
