Chapter 11 Case No. 09-50026 (REG)
OBJECTION to the CURE AMOUNT

Supplier Name: Rapids Tumble Finish, Inc
Vender ID: 92944883
GM Contract IDs: 0Z4G0000, 0Z4G0001, 0Z4G0005, 0Z4G0009

Dear Sir/Madam:

We are filing this objection to the Cure Amount as listed on the web site <http://www.contractnotices.com>. It shows an amount of 0, we believe this amount to be $9937.18.

We have provided parts finishing services to GM since January 2003 up to June 2008. Over this time period GM has short paid or not paid at all on some of these services. We have been in contact with various individuals at GM regarding these outstanding balances, have provided on several different occasions documentation proving the work was performed, but have yet to get the outstanding payment issues resolved.

General Motors owes us a total of $9937.18. A summary of the dates are attached along with a copy of our Proof of Claim Form.

We did contact the Call Center and were given issue id # 2009.3681. We received an email from the Command Center stating that if GM identifies us as an essential supplier we would receive a Trade Agreement to sign and could get paid.

Since we have not provided any parts finishing services to GM since June 2008, we are pretty confident that GM will not consider us an 'essential' supplier. We do not feel that should mean they don't owe us the $9937.18.

Please advise if there is any additional information you need.

I am replying to this email as I do not agree that issue id# 2009.3681 should be closed.

I'm sure that GM will not identify us, Rapids Tumble Finish, Inc., as an 'essential supplier'. Especially since the last work we preformed for them was in June 2008 of which they have yet to pay us.

GM has an outstanding balance of $9937.18, a far cry from 0 as listed on the web site. This outstanding balance is for services provided dating from October 2004 up through June 2008. They either would short paid us or not pay at all. Over the years I have been in contact with various individuals at GM and have provide documentation on several occasions to prove the work was performed, but still could not get the payment issues resolved, most of the time no one at GM would even respond to my inquires.

We are a small job shop and are struggling like everyone else in today's economic crisis. Unlike GM, we did not receive any 'loans' from the Government to help us get through these tough times. We have to rely on our customers (of which GM is one) actually paying their bills.

I don't accept the fact that because we are not an 'essential supplier' to GM, that we are not entitled to the balance they owe us. So, no, do not close issue id# 2009.3681.

Respectfully submitted,
LouAnn Loomis

Subject: Payment Issue 2009.3681

The Court has granted GM authority to pay the prepetition claims of its direct suppliers and certain of its indirect suppliers if those suppliers enter into a Trade Agreement with GM. If you have been identified by GM as an essential supplier, you will receive a Trade Agreement for execution.

This should close out issue id# 2009.3681, if you have additional questions please contact the GM Call Center (888) 409-2328 or (586) 947-3000.

Thank you,

GM Command Center
