WE STRONGLY OBJECT TO THE GM BANKPUPCY SETTELMENT!

Irma Delano is 96. She invested in senior securities and accepted a low rate of return because of the "secure" nature of the investment. The sale of these "secure" notes seems suspiciously fraudulent. The sellers obviously had knowledge that the financial position of the company did not support the high credit rating ascribed to these notes.

On June 16, 2009 she received a letter that indicated that if she has objection to the sale it must be received no later than June 19, 2009. This presents an absurdly short period in which to respond to such an important matter.
