Subject: : Objections to the relief sought in General Motors Corp, chapter 11
Case No 09-50026 (Reg)

Attachments: 1) Copy of the motion and Sale Procedures Order dated
June 2 2009 (Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP)
2) General Motors Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation
dated April 27 2009 to Avoid Chapter 11 Bankruptcy

Background Information:

I am a retired, 76 year old holder of $40,000 of General Motors 7.2% Bonds, due 15 January 2011 in my IRA account .. On 5/1 7/09 I received via mail a 195 page Prospectus for a General Motors Exchange offer of Bonds for Common Stock to avoid Bankruptcy (Ref; Item 2, above)--- that offer converted each $1000 value of GM bond debt to 225 shares of GM common stock plus an implicit consent by the creditor for removal of all creditor protections in the indenture applicable to GM debt responsibility. That translated to 9000 shares for my $40,000 investment. The deal breaker was spelled out on Prospectus page 160 under heading "Description of Charter Amendments" where a 100 to 1 reverse stock split was to be implemented at conclusion of the exchange offer. That would have reduced my 9000 shares to 90 shares requiring a future stock price of $445.00 just to break even.

Today, 6/22/09, I received Ref Item 1 (Above) with an "Objection Deadline" of June 19 2009 at 5:PM to the relief sought in the motion to be filed with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy court . That motion to sell substantially all of Debtors Assets and failure of any person to file a response or objection on or before the objection deadline shall be deemed an consent to the 363 transaction. .That "Objection Date" had expired 3 days prior to receipt of the objection deadline.letter

Conclusion:

There seems to be a pattern of deception by those involved in this GM restructuring whether it be the exchange offer or current chapter 11 bankruptcy,-- deemed a 363 transaction, whatever that involves---- that if a creditor does not respond within an "Objection Deadline", which in reality had already expired upon his receipt of the notice, that the creditor has accepted without exception and concurred with the terms of all subsequent motions to be laid before the court. I'm writing this letter to your attention because I hope you are aware of this form of underhanded , back door, out of court view, deception to the parties involved. If Bernard Madoff was imprisoned for his fraudulent deception, I don't see where this pattern of deception is much different...

I have one overriding interest in this GM fiasco; that is to recover some or all of my retirement money that I lent them in good faith. I'm too old to start over again.and I don't like the way I'm being manipulated. It seems unbelievable that a company can seek bankruptcy protection----- that during the process can sell off all of its assets to a shell entity, then walk away free and clear, leaving only massive piles of debt behind, immune to punitive legal action with no further obligation to its creditors, and the ability to restart the process all over again. My trust in General Motors has already been shattered, so I hope this letter makes sense to you since you are the only one with the authority to bring some sanity to the issues, uphold and correctly interpret the law; to judge fairly, and safeguard the individual's interest.

Sincerely
Robert E. Wilkes

AGREEMENT WITH VEHICLE ACQUISITION HOLDINGS LLC, A U.S. TREASURY-SPONSORED PURCHASER

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT upon the motion (the "Motion"), of General Motors Corporation ("GM") and its debtor subsidiaries, as debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors" or the "Company"), dated June 1, 2009, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court") has issued an order dated June 2, 2009 (the "Sale Procedures Order"), among other things, (i) scheduling a hearing (the "Sale Hearing") to approve (a) the Master Sale and Purchase Agreement, dated as of June 1, 2009 (the "MPA"), by and among GM and its Debtor subsidiaries (collectively, the "Sellers") and Vehicle Acquisition Holdings LLC. (the "Purchaser"), a purchaser sponsored by the United States Department of the Treasury (the "U.S. Treasury"), with respect to the sale of substantially all the Debtors' assets (the "Purchased Assets") free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests, and subject to higher or better offers (the "363 Transaction"); (b) the assumption, assignment, and sale to the Purchaser pursuant to the MPA of certain executory contracts and unexpired leases of personal property and nonresidential real property (the "Assumable Executory Contracts"); and (c) the settlement agreement (the "UAW Retiree Settlement Agreement"), between the Purchaser and the International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace and Agricultural Implement Workers of America (the "UAW"); (ii) approving certain procedures for the submission and acceptance of any competing bids (the "Sale Procedures"); (iii) approving a procedure for the assumption, assignment, and sale to the Purchaser pursuant to the MPA of the Assumable Executory Contracts; (iv) approving the form and manner of notice of the Motion and the relief requested therein and of the Sale Hearing; and (v) setting a deadline for the filing of objections, if any, to the relief requested in the Motion.

A. THE MASTER SALE AND PURCHASE AGREEMENT

The total consideration under the MPA for the sale of the Purchased Assets is equal to the sum of (i) a credit bid in the amount of the outstanding indebtedness owed to the Purchaser as of the closing pursuant to certain secured loans extended by the U.S. Treasury and Export Development Canada, less approximately $8 billion (estimated to be approximately $48.3 billion at July 31, 2009); (ii) the surrender of a warrant to purchase GM shares previously issued to the U.S. Treasury in connection with the secured loans extended by the U.S. Treasury; (iii) the issuance to GM of shares of common stock of the Purchaser representing approximately 10% of the common stock of the Purchaser as of the closing of the sale; (iv) the issuance to GM of warrants to purchase up to 15% of the shares of common stock of the Purchaser on a fully diluted basis, with one half exercisable at any time prior to the seventh anniversary of issuance at an initial exercise price based on a $15 billion equity value of the Purchaser and the other half exercisable at any time prior to the tenth anniversary of issuance at an initial exercise price based on a $30 billion equity value of the Purchaser (GM can elect partial and cashless exercises of the warrants); and (v) the assumption by the Purchaser of certain assumed liabilities, all as set forth more fully in the MPA, a copy of which is annexed to the Motion as Exhibit "A." In addition, if the aggregate amount of allowed general unsecured claims against the Debtors exceeds $35 billion, as estimated by an order of the Bankruptcy Court (which the Debtors may seek at any time), GM will receive an additional 2% of the common stock of the Purchaser as of the closing of the sale.

B. THE SALE HEARING

The Sale Hearing will be held before the Honorable Robert E. Gerber, United States Bankruptcy Judge, in Courtroom 621 of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, One Bowling Green, New York, New York 10004-1408, on June 30, 2009, at 9:45 a.m. (Eastern Time).
