and Debtors in Possession

tunc to June 1, 2009 (the “Commencement Date”), the date on which the Debtors’ chapter 11 cases were filed, pursuant to sections 327(e) of title 11, United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and Rule 2014(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”).

Jurisdiction

2. This Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).

Retention of Baker & McKenzie

3. By this Application, the Debtors request entry of an order, pursuant to sections 327(e) and 1107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Rule 2014(a) of the Bankruptcy Rules, and Rule 2014-1 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York (“Local Rules”), authorizing the employment of the law firm of Baker & McKenzie, including partners and employees in its member firms as special counsel for the Debtors, effective nunc pro tunc to the Commencement Date. Nunc pro tunc retention is appropriate because (i) this Application was filed as soon as practicable after the Commencement Date, (ii) Baker has provided and will continue to provide services to the Debtors from and after the Commencement Date, and (iii) a final hearing on this Application will not be conducted, and a final order will not be entered, until after the Commencement Date.

4. The Debtors are seeking to retain Baker with respect to the following matters (collectively, “Representative Matters”):

- Representing and advising the Debtors through identification and resolution of all tax claims and exposures in the United States and jurisdictions outside of the United States in which the company has operations, in the Debtors’ bankruptcy cases and otherwise;
- Representing and advising the Debtors in connection with coordination and contingency planning relating to global financing in the Asia Pacific region, including advice relating to regulatory requirements and contract rights;

- Representing and advising the Debtors in connection with certain defined strategic alternatives and aspects of potential sales and purchases of assets, including any transaction involving Delphi Corporation, its assets and affiliates; and
- Representing and advising the Debtors and their European affiliates in connection with the negotiation and implementation of potential investments and funding arrangements in Europe.

5. Section 327(e) provides for the appointment of special counsel that has previously represented the debtor, where the proposed counsel does not possess any interest materially adverse to the debtor with regard to the matter(s) that will be handled by counsel:

The trustee, with the court's approval, may employ, for a specified special purpose, other than to represent the trustee in conducting the case, an attorney that has represented the debtor, if in the best interest of the estate, and if such attorney does not represent or hold any interest adverse to the debtor or to the estate with respect to the matter on which such attorney is to be employed.

11 U.S.C. § 327(e). Moreover, section 1107(b) provides that “a person is not disqualified for employment under section 327 of this title by a debtor in possession solely because of such person's employment by or representation of the debtor before the commencement of the case.”

Id. § 1107(b).

6. Accordingly, section 327(e) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the retention of counsel that previously represented a debtor prepetition provided that: (a) the appointment is in the best interest of the debtor's estate; (b) counsel does not hold an interest adverse to the estate with respect to the matter for which counsel is to be employed; and (c) the specified special purpose for which counsel is being retained does not amount to conducting the bankruptcy case for the debtor in possession. See DeVlieg-Bullard, Inc. v. Natale (In re DeVlieg, Inc.), 174 B.R. 497, 502-04 (N.D. Ill. 1994); see also Bank Brussels Lambert v. Coan (In re AroChem Corp.), 176 F.3d 610, 622 (2d Cir. 1999) (noting that “where the interest of the special counsel and the interest of the estate are identical with respect to the matter for which special counsel is retained, there is no conflict and the representation can stand”). As explained more fully below, the Debtors submit that each of these factors is satisfied with respect to Baker and, therefore, its retention should be approved under section 327(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

7. The Debtors’ knowledge, information, and belief regarding the matters set forth in this Application are based on and made in reliance upon the Declaration of A. Duane Webber (the “Webber Declaration”), a Baker partner, sworn to on July 17, 2009, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit “A.”

The Employment and Retention of Baker Is in the Best Interests of the Estates

8. The Debtors’ decision to retain Baker is based on several factors:

(a) Baker is well qualified to act as special counsel in the Representative Matters for which it has been asked to provide legal counsel; (b) prior to the Commencement Date, Baker actively represented the Debtors and their affiliates with regard to various matters, including some of the Representative Matters for which the Debtors seek Baker’s continuing postpetition counsel; and (c) the Debtors believe that representation by Baker in all such matters, subsequent to the Commencement Date was, and is, in the best interest of the estates.

9. The Debtors selected Baker as special counsel for the Representative Matters described above because Baker has extensive knowledge, experience and expertise with these kinds of matters. Baker is one of the world’s largest law firms with approximately 4,000 attorneys in 69 offices in 40 countries. Baker’s knowledge, resources and international reach permit it to deliver high quality legal services throughout the world with fluency, consistency, confidence and sensitivity for cultural, social and legal practice differences outside of the U.S. Baker has extensive expertise in virtually all aspects of the law that may arise in the Representative Matters and these chapter 11 cases, including tax, corporate, labor, benefits, immigration and employment, finance, litigation, securities, environmental, intellectual property and restructuring.

10. Further, based upon Baker's experience with the Debtors and ongoing familiarity with the Representative Matters, continued retention of Baker is essential to avoid duplicative and unnecessary expense. Finding substitute counsel would necessarily cause increased expenses as that counsel becomes familiar with the Debtors' businesses, operations, corporate and capital structure, restructuring needs and strategic prospects. As a result, the Debtors believe that the estate will benefit from continuing representation by Baker on the Representative Matters.

11. The Debtors have been informed that all of Baker's partners, counsel, and associates who may appear before this Court are members in good standing with the bars of the jurisdictions in which they practice. Further, to the extent such lawyers are admitted to the federal District Courts in New York, they are in good standing in those courts.

12. Considering its history of representation of the Debtors and its reputation, the Debtors believe the employment of Baker under the terms described herein is in the best interest of the Debtors' estates.

Baker Holds No Interest Adverse to the Debtors or the Debtors' Estates with Respect to the Representative Matters

13. To the best of the Debtors' knowledge, and except as may be set forth in the Webber Declaration, Baker does not represent or hold any interest adverse to the Debtors or their estates with respect to the matters as to which Baker is to be employed. See In re AroChem, 176 F.3d at 622 (emphasizing that, under section 327(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, potential conflicts must be evaluated only with respect to the scope of the proposed retention). The Debtors have been informed that Baker will conduct an ongoing review of its files to ensure that no disqualifying circumstances arise, and, if any new relevant facts or relationships are discovered, Baker will supplement its disclosure to the Court.

14. Baker has informed the Debtors that it is owed approximately $250,000 in unpaid fees and expenses from the Debtors as of the Commencement Date for services rendered by Baker unrelated to these chapter 11 cases. Baker has not received payment of any of these outstanding amounts. Baker is, therefore, a prepetition creditor of the Debtors. However, Baker's status as a prepetition creditor of the Debtors does not bar its retention by the Debtors under section 327(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. 3 Collier on Bankruptcy, ¶ 327.04[9][d], at 327-63-64 (15th ed. 2008) ("the disinterested test of section 327(a) does not apply to section 327(e) because the attorney may, in fact, be a creditor of the debtor for fees related to such prepetition representation of the debtor"); see also DeVlieg, 174 B.R. at 503 (holding that proposed attorney due outstanding prepetition fees did not hold interest adverse to the debtor or its estate for the matters for which it was to be retained under the "more relaxed conflict-of-interest standard" of section 327(e)).

15. Based on the foregoing and the disclosures set forth in the Webber Declaration, the Debtors submit that Baker does not hold or represent any interest adverse to the Debtors or the Debtors' estates with respect to the matters on which Baker is to be employed.

Baker Will Not Conduct the Debtors' Bankruptcy Case

16. By separate applications, the Debtors have sought the Court's approval to retain and employ Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP as the Debtors' general bankruptcy counsel. By contrast, Baker's postpetition work is comprised only of the Representative Matters. None of these matters involves the conduct of the bankruptcy cases themselves. Additionally, because Baker is not serving as the Debtors' bankruptcy counsel, the Debtors believe that Baker has not rendered "services . . . in contemplation of or in connection with the case" within the meaning of section 329(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the services rendered and functions to be performed by Baker will not be duplicative of any bankruptcy-related work performed by Weil, Gotshal or any other law firms retained by the Debtors. Furthermore, Baker will coordinate with the Debtors' other professionals to ensure that its services are, to the maximum extent possible, consistent with and complimentary to other professionals' services.

Professional Compensation

17. The Debtors understand that Baker intends to apply separately to the Court for allowances of compensation and reimbursement of expenses in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, all guidelines promulgated by the U.S. Trustee, and all orders of this Court governing professional services performed and expenses incurred after the Commencement Date. To that end, Baker has agreed to submit applications for interim and/or final allowances of compensation pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, the rules and orders of this Court, and according to the terms of retention applicable in each jurisdiction in which Baker will be providing services.

18. Baker has further informed the Debtors that the current hourly billing rates for Baker professionals expected to spend significant time on the Representative Matters range from:²

Partners	$325 to $925
Of Counsel	$200 to $700
Associates	$150 to $540

² Such hourly rates may change from time to time in accordance with Baker & McKenzie's established billing practices and procedures. U.S. dollar values assigned to billing rates for attorneys outside of the U.S. may fluctuate based upon applicable exchange rates.

Para-professionals $60 to $250

19. The Debtors respectfully submit that such rates are reasonable and comparable to the rates other firms charge for similar services. Baker & McKenzie's current hourly rates for associates and partners outside of the United States, depending on the jurisdiction, vary from $200 to $1200. These rates are consistent with hourly rates charged by professionals for similar services in the jurisdictions in which the services are provided.

20. For services rendered by Baker in these cases, the Debtors, subject to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, all guidelines promulgated by the U.S. Trustee, and orders of the Court, propose to pay Baker its customary hourly rates that are in effect from time to time, for each jurisdiction in which services are provided, as set forth in the Webber Declaration.

Notice

21. Notice of this Motion has been provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York, (ii) the attorneys for the United States Department of the Treasury, (iii) the attorneys for Export Development Canada, (iv) the attorneys for the statutory committee of unsecured creditors appointed in these chapter 11 cases, (v) the attorneys for the ad hoc bondholders committee, (vi) the U.S. Attorney's Office, S.D.N.Y., (vii) all entities that requested notice in these chapter 11 cases under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002, and (xiv) Baker. The Debtors submit that, in view of the facts and circumstances, such notice is sufficient and no other or further notice need be provided.

22. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Debtors to this or any other Court.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request entry of an order granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as is just.

Scope of Retention of Baker

4. The Debtors² are seeking to retain Baker with respect to the following matters (collectively, “Representative Matters”):

- Representing and advising the Debtors through identification and resolution of all tax claims and exposures in the United States and jurisdictions outside of the United States in which the company has operations, in the Debtors bankruptcy cases and otherwise;
- Representing and advising the Debtors in connection with coordination and contingency planning relating to global financing in the Asia Pacific region, including advice relating to regulatory requirements and contract rights;
- Representing and advising the Debtors in connection with certain defined strategic alternatives and aspects of potential sales and purchases of assets, including any transaction involving Delphi Corporation, its assets and affiliates; and

Compensation of Baker

5. Baker’s current hourly billing rates for Baker professionals expected to spend significant time on the Representative Matters range from:³

Partners	$325 to $925
Of Counsel	$200 to $700
Associates	$150 to $540
Para-professionals	$60 to $250

Baker & McKenzie’s current hourly rates for associates and partners outside of the United States, depending on the jurisdiction, vary from $200 to $1200. These rates are consistent with hourly rates charged by professionals for similar services in the jurisdictions in which the services are provided.

6. These rates are designed to fairly compensate Baker for the work of its attorneys and legal assistants and to cover fixed and routine overhead expenses. These rates are adjusted periodically and any modification of such rates is applicable to legal services performed after the new rates become effective. Baker will notify the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee, the Court and any official committee of any change in the hourly rates charged by Baker for services rendered, and will file such notification with the Court.

7. The expenses that Baker ordinarily and customarily charges its clients include, but are not limited to, telephone and telecopier charges, mail and express mail charges, messenger and hand delivery charges, photocopying charges at the rate of $.10 per page, document processing, courier services, overnight delivery charges, computer-assisted research, docket and filing fees, travel expenses, expenses for “working meals,” court reporting charges and transcription charges, overtime for secretarial personnel, and other incidental costs advanced by the firm specifically for these matters.

8. Baker intends to apply separately to the Court for allowances of compensation and reimbursement of expenses in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, all guidelines promulgated by the U.S. Trustee, and all orders of this Court governing professional services performed and expenses incurred after the Commencement Date. Baker will submit applications for interim and/or final allowances of compensation pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and the rules and orders of this Court.

9. Except as is permitted by section 504(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Baker has not entered into any agreement respecting the division or sharing of fees arising out of these proceedings with any third party, nor will it enter into any such agreement or any other agreement prohibited by section 504 of the Bankruptcy Code or 18 U.S.C. § 155.

Qualifications of Baker

10. Baker is one of the world's largest law firms with approximately 4,000 attorneys in 69 offices in 40 countries. Baker's knowledge, resources and international reach permit it to deliver high quality legal services throughout the world with fluency, consistency, confidence and sensitivity for cultural, social and legal practice differences outside of the U.S. Baker has extensive expertise in virtually all aspects of the law that may arise in the Representative Matters and these chapter 11 cases, including tax, corporate, labor, benefits, immigration and employment, finance, litigation, securities, environmental, intellectual property and restructuring.

11. Baker is well positioned to provide the type of representation required by the Debtors on the Representative Matters. Based on Baker's knowledge and familiarity with the Debtors multi-national business and legal affairs, their tax structure and contractual relationships, and the ongoing matters for which Baker represented the Debtors prior to the Commencement Date, the Firm is uniquely qualified to provide counsel to the Debtors with respect to the Representative Matters.

12. Baker's partners, counsel, and associates who may appear before this Court are members in good standing with the bars of the jurisdictions in which they practice. Further, to the extent such lawyers are admitted to the federal District Courts in New York, they are in good standing in those courts.

Connections of Baker to Parties-in-Interest

13. In preparing this Declaration, attorneys and employees of Baker compared an extensive list of parties-in-interest and other persons and entities related to the Debtors and their chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") to Baker's conflicts database of present and former clients and adverse parties, including the Debtors and their affiliates; the officers, directors and control persons of the Debtors; creditors, insurers, utility providers, debt instrument holders, vendors and suppliers of the Debtors; counterparties to leases, contracts and financial agreements; adversaries in litigation matters to which the Debtors are parties; the professionals known to Baker sought to be retained by the Debtors in this case; the U.S. Trustee and other persons employed thereby; and other known significant parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases.

14. The conflicts database maintained by Baker includes every matter in which the firm is now or has been engaged over at least the past five years and, in each instance, the identity of related parties and adverse parties. It is Baker's policy that no new matter may be accepted or opened within the firm without completing and submitting to those charged with maintaining the conflicts database the information necessary to check each new matter for conflicts, including the identity of the prospective client, the matter, and related and adverse parties.

15. Except as set forth below, and to the best of my knowledge, neither I, Baker, nor any partner, counsel to, or associate of the Firm holds any interest adverse to the Debtors with respect to the Representative Matters. As described below, Baker represents certain interests in connection with the Representative Matters, but such interests are not materially adverse to Motors Liquidation Company (“MLC”) and appropriate waivers have been obtained.

- Baker has been advising MLC and its affiliates in connection with aspects of MLC’s proposed acquisition of Delphi Corporation’s (“Delphi”) Steering Business Lines (the “Transaction”). Baker provides legal services to Delphi and certain of its affiliates. Baker has also been engaged to provide competition law advice to Platinum Equity, LLC (“Platinum”) with respect to its interest in other aspects of Delphi. Baker has obtained written waivers from MLC, Delphi and Platinum sufficient to allow Baker to be retained as special counsel on the terms set forth in this Application.
- Baker has been advising MLC in connection with the negotiation and implementation of a potential investment by third parties in Adam Opel GmbH, including advice related to funding arrangements involving European governments. Baker has also been engaged to provide competition law advice related to the potential transaction to Magna International Inc. (“Magna”) and certain of its affiliates. Baker has obtained written waivers from MLC and Magna sufficient to allow Baker to be retained as special counsel on the terms set forth in this Application.

16. Except as set forth below, and to the best of my knowledge, neither Baker, nor any partner, counsel to, or associate of the Firm has any connection with the Debtors, their creditors or any other party in interest in the Debtors’ cases, their respective attorneys and advisors, the U.S. Trustee, any person employed in the Office of the U.S. Trustee, or the Bankruptcy Judges for the Southern District of New York.

- (a) Attorneys at Baker have been representing the Debtors in ongoing matters and Baker has represented and intends to continue to represent the Debtors' non-debtor affiliates on terms similar to those set forth herein.
- (b) Baker has appeared in the past, and may appear in the future, in cases unrelated to the Representative Matters, where creditors of the Debtors and other interested parties and/or their respective attorneys and advisors may be involved.
- (c) Baker may have in the past represented, may currently represent, and likely will in the future represent creditors and other parties in interest of the Debtors and in the Chapter 11 Cases in connection with matters unrelated to the Representative Matters.
- (d) Baker may previously have represented, currently represent, or may represent in the future, parties who are or may be parties to past, pending or future litigation with the Debtors. Baker has not agreed to represent any such party in connection with litigation against the Debtors.
- (e) Baker may have "connections" with many of the attorneys and other professionals involved in the Chapter 11 Cases (collectively, "Professionals"). Baker may have referred matters to Professionals, or have been referred matters by Professionals. Baker may previously have represented, presently represent, or in the future represent one or more of the Professionals in matters unrelated to the Representative Matters.
- (f) Baker may acquire goods and services from one or more of the Debtors' vendors, insurers, utility providers, creditors or contract counterparties.

(g) Except to the extent it has represented or may now represent those persons or entities listed on the attached Schedule 1, Baker has no professional relationship with the Debtors' known secured and significant unsecured creditors, or the Debtors' vendors or suppliers, counterparties to leases or contracts, insurers, utility providers, equity security holders, or the officers, directors and control persons of the Debtors or other known significant parties in interest in this case. Baker does not and will not represent any of the entities listed on Schedule 1 in connection with the Representative Matters.

17. Baker has unpaid invoices to MLC totaling approximately $250,000 as of June 1, 2009, and is, therefore, a creditor in the Chapter 11 Cases at this time.

18. Neither Baker, nor its principals, counsel or associates, have received or been promised compensation in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases other than in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules.

19. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct, and that this Declaration was executed on July 17, 2009.
