To the honorable Judge Gerber and the bankruptcy court I decided that since I may not be able to attend a conference in NY <sup>because of my financial status.</sup> I believe it ~~may~~ may be of some importance to express one final concern in Motors Liquidation Company's Response to my request for relief from the automatic stay, documentation they submitted implies I only worked for GM for 1 year and nine months, which is only partially true I actually worked at the GM Fairfax plant from 2/2004 - 1/2006 however I had previously Worked with Delphi Automotive Systems and had been there for or since 12/1999 until I transferred to the GM assembly plant where GM had agreed to transfer over time worked at Delphi to actual GM time worked or accumulated. I recently received an investigative report from a potential employer that conducted a background and employment history check I will submit the parts of the results that relate to GM and Delphi along with the report reference number that the court if it so desires can verify the information. My time with Delphi and GM can be verified through the internal revenue service and the Social Security Administration because of taxes I filed from 2000 - 2006 I was or had 5 years vested in the company with full benefits and reached maximum life insurance benefits. Respectfully Lisa Gross
