118. JPMCB denies the allegations of paragraph 118 of the BTG Pactual Term Lender Cross-Complaint.

119. JPMCB denies the allegations of paragraph 119 of the BTG Pactual Term Lender Cross-Complaint.

120. JPMCB denies the allegations of paragraph 120 of the BTG Pactual Term Lender Cross-Complaint.

121. JPMCB denies the allegations of paragraph 121 of the BTG Pactual Term Lender Cross-Complaint.

ADDITIONAL DEFENSES

JPMCB's assertion of defenses herein is not a concession that JPMCB bears the burden of proof or persuasion on any issue as to which the BTG Pactual bears the burden of proof or persuasion. JPMCB reserves the right to supplement, amend, or delete any or all of the following defenses prior to any trial of this action, and to assert any additional cross-claims, counterclaims, and third-party claims as they become known or available.

FIRST DEFENSE

The BTG Pactual Term Lender Cross-Complaint fails to state a claim against JPMCB upon which relief may be granted.

SECOND DEFENSE

The Bankruptcy Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over the first through eleventh claims for relief asserted in the BTG Pactual Term Lender Cross-Complaint. The first through eleventh claims for relief asserted in the BTG Pactual Term Lender Cross-Complaint are not subject to jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1334, and the Bankruptcy Court is not empowered to exercise supplemental jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1367 or otherwise.

THIRD DEFENSE

The claims asserted in the BTG Pactual Term Lender Cross-Complaint are barred by provisions of the Term Loan Agreement, including: (a) section 8.04 of the Term Loan Agreement, which provides that JPMCB “shall be entitled to rely, and shall be fully protected in relying” upon “advice and statements of legal counsel (including, without limitation, any counsel to the Borrower)”; (b) section 8.02 of the Term Loan Agreement, which permits JPMCB to execute any of its duties “by or through agents or attorneys-in-fact” and states that JPMCB “shall not be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any agents or attorneys-in-fact selected by it with reasonable care”; (c) section 8.03 of the Term Loan Agreement, which provides that JPMCB shall not be liable “for any action lawfully taken or omitted to be taken by it or such Person under or in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document (except for its or such Person’s own gross negligence or willful misconduct)”; and (d) section 8.06 of the Term Loan Agreement, which provides that each lender “expressly acknowledges” that JPMCB has not “made any representations or warranties to it,” and that each lender “represents that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Agent . . . continue to make its own credit analysis, appraisals and decisions” with respect to the Term Loan.

FOURTH DEFENSE

The claims asserted in the BTG Pactual Term Lender Cross-Complaint that are not predicated on express provisions of the Term Loan Agreement are barred because, under section 8.01 of the Term Loan Agreement, “[n]otwithstanding any provision to the contrary elsewhere in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document, the Agent shall not have any duties or responsibilities, except those expressly set forth herein or therein, or any fiduciary relationship with any Lender or any Affiliate of such Lender, and no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities shall be read into this Agreement or any other Loan Document or otherwise exist against the Agent.” Among other things, section 4.03 of the Collateral Agreement (as defined in the BTG Pactual Term Lender Cross-Complaint) provides that General Motors, not JPMCB, “shall maintain the security interest created by this Agreement.” The Term Loan Agreement and related documents do not require JPMCB to maintain the security interest, and no such duty should be implied.

FIFTH DEFENSE

The BTG Pactual Term Lender Cross-Complaint is untimely under the Court’s Order Regarding Discovery and Scheduling entered on August 17, 2015 [Docket No. 153], which sets forth the deadline for Defendants to file cross-claims, if any, on or before November 16, 2015.

SIXTH DEFENSE

The claims asserted in the BTG Pactual Term Lender Cross-Complaint are barred by applicable statutes of limitations.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

BTG Pactual lacks standing to assert a claim for equitable subordination against JPMCB.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

Any claim for equitable subordination against JPMCB is unripe because neither JPMCB nor BTG Pactual presently hold allowed prepetition claims against the Motors Liquidation bankruptcy estate.

NINTH DEFENSE

Any claim for equitable subordination against JPMCB is barred by the terms of the Debtors' Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan confirmed by the Court on March 29, 2011 [D.I. 9941] and the Motors Liquidation Company GUC Trust Agreement (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise revised from time to time).

TENTH DEFENSE

To the extent BTG Pactual is not a defendant in the Avoidance Action, its claims are barred for lack of standing.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

BTG Pactual's claims for damages are barred because the losses or damages alleged are speculative, uncertain or otherwise not cognizable.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

BTG Pactual's claims are barred because JPMCB's conduct was not the cause of any injury, losses or damages alleged by BTG Pactual and/or any such injury, loss or damages were caused by the intervening or superseding acts of third parties.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

BTG Pactual's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of collateral estoppel, res judicata and/or law of the case.

FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

BTG Pactual's claims for breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, as well as BTG Pactual's claims sounding in tort, are barred because they are duplicative of BTG Pactual's claims for breach of express contractual provisions.

FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

BTG Pactual's claims for equitable relief are barred because BTG Pactual has an adequate remedy at law if their claims are meritorious, which they are not.

SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

As of the date the Termination Statement was filed, JPMCB did not owe duties to lenders who purchased Term Loan interests after that date.

SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE

BTG Pactual's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of laches and equitable estoppel.

EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

BTG Pactual's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of assumption of risk, estoppel and waiver.

WHEREFORE, JPMCB requests judgment as follows: (1) entering judgment in favor of JPMCB against BTG Pactual and dismissing the BTG Pactual Term Lender Cross-Complaint with prejudice; (2) awarding JPMCB the costs of defending this action, including attorneys' fees and expenses; and (3) granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
